FRIENDS

friendship lightens

every burden and makes the sun shine brighter.

How beautiful a day can be when friendship touches it.

Friendship holds the brightest light of all,

Your friends will want to catch you when you fall,

They'll try comfort you when you will cry.

Your friends will make you feel like you can fly.

Friends make up half of your beating heart,

your friends will always help, they'll do their part

The best friend will not ever leave your side.

The good friend comes and goes just like the tide.

The best things in life are surely friends,

and just remember, a good friendship never ends.

HOW BEAUTIFUL A DAY CAN BE WHEN

friendship TOUCHES IT

friendship lightens every burden and makes the sun shine brighter.

Friendship holds the brightest light of all,

Your friends will want to catch you when you fall,

They'll try comfort you when you will cry.

Your friends will make you feel like you can fly.
